

שֵׁבֶט תַּפּוּז SHEVET TAPUZ
The Israeli Scouts of Orange County

Pledge Form

Shevet Tapuz, the Israeli Scouts of Orange County, is part of Tzofim Tzabar, the Israeli Scouts of North America, which is an apolitical, non-sectarian organization. Tzofim Tzabar emphasizes social and moral development. It aims to strengthen the relationships between Israel and North American Jews, project Israel in a positive light, promote teamwork, tolerance and respect among people of all faiths, and form strong bonds between the Israeli youth living abroad and in Israel. The program helps young people to develop physically, intellectually and socially, through age-specific activities including simulation games, discussions, projects, camping trips, ceremonies, holiday celebrations, music and sport, in a fun and stimulating way.
